Time to Think

North Miami, the home of the almighty Warriors, was typical in some ways, yet unique in 547 other ways. Each student at N.M. was what made it what it was . . . special. With the help of the community and the staff, the students became individuals and contributed something to the school.

North Miami, a rural school, is situated right in the middle of corn fields and cow pastures. Maybe, not the best setting for a school, but it was nice and peaceful.

Peru, the home of the largest amateur circus in the world, is where N.M. students went to relax and had fun with friends after a long week of school. Students could be found somewhere between Hardee's and Mace's grocery store, the official cruise lane of Peru.

When the weekend came to an end and Monday returned, it was back to school. The brick school building became the "home" of many busy students who often only took enough time to eat and sleep. Going to school, participating in extra-curricular clubs and playing in sports ran many students ragged.

One lesson students needed to learn was the importance of TAKING TIME to enjoy their school and community.

7:00 Wake up to the hum of the alarm
7:30 clock. Time to get up and get ready for...
8:00 What? It can't be the first day of school
8:30 already! Reality finally hits – it IS 9:00 the first day of school – Yuck!
9:30 Hurry up and dress and eat – rush
10:00 out to the bus. Nice to be with friends
10:30 again. We can't seem to talk fast
11:00 enough.
11:30 What's that? The bell summoning
12:00 everyone to class! Well, at least we 12:30 have bells this year – perhaps it will
1:00 cut down on our tardies!
1:30 Morning classes went really good.
2:00 Can hardly wait to see what's the lunch
2:30 line. More time to visit with friends.
3:00 The afternoon classes seem longer. Can
3:30 hardly wait till 3:20. Final countdown –
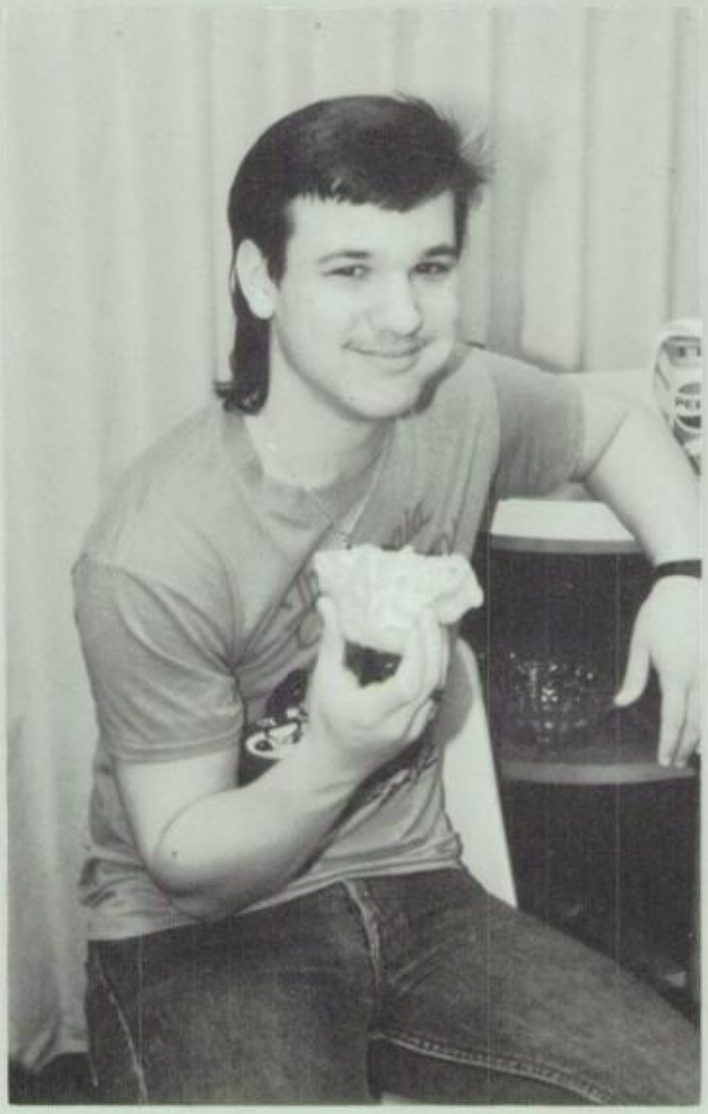
4:00 time to either go home or go to 4:30 practice. Somehow WE survived the 5:00 first day of school — only 179 to go!

Senior Shannon Umbarger is thrilled to be in the cafeteria.



Tim Wellsand demonstrates one of his many talents . . . eating!

On enrollment day seniors get together to talk over next year's plans.

HOMECOMING

Seniors Down Juniors in Both Sporting Events

The winning senior Powder Puff team enjoys victory after the long game.

This senior Power Puff team definately knows who is the better team.

Juniors show their spirit after a long, hard defeat.

Juniors are fired up and ready for the volleyball action on the court.

Students Catch the Spirit All Week

Seniors Bev Conner and Erin Tiffany get help on the senior Homecoming float from their mothers.

Homecoming. A week of tradition at North Miami. Students and faculty both consider the dress-up days a great opportunity to "cut loose." Students showed their true colors on Punk Day; beach attire was modeled on Fun in the Sun Day; the spirit of the Twist invaded the students during the Sock Hop on Fifties Day; sweats were donned on Sweats Day; and the week ended with Spirit Day, as usual.

Girls and boys again traded sports as the girls played Powderpuff Football, and the boys played Powerpuff Volleyball. The mighty SENIORS won both events easily.

Although the night was cold, the faithful North Miami fans huddeled in blankets and continued to support the Warriors. At the end of the first half, the Warriors were behind Southwood and the crowd turned their attention to the candidates who were anxiously awaiting the announcement of the King and Queen. Curtis Willis and Erin Tiffany were crowned 1987-88 Royalty during the halftime ceremonies.

The warriors made a comeback in the second half and beat Southwood by a score of 14-10.

Warrior cheerleaders lead the fans during the pep session.

Jeff Dawalt is crowned Mr. Stud during the pep session.

MADRIGAL DINNER

Concert Choir Goes Back in Time—Madrigal Invades NM

ABOVE: Jennifer Payne, John Memmer, Eric Lamb and Lucinda Ashby play a tune on their recorders for the diners.

On December 12th, the choir put on a Madrigal Dinner in the cafeteria. The stage and cafeteria were decorated for the occasion. Students wore the clothing and played and sang music from the Renaissance Era. The menu consisted of: roast beef, fresh fruit, lettuce salad, baked potato, green bean casserole and pudding. Beggars roamed the room begging for money.

ABOVE: Donn Whitenight and Dustin Davis play a wonderful trumpet fanfare. LEFT: These beggars seem to be having trouble getting any attention.

WARRIORAMA

Wonderful, Wild and Wacky Warriorama Has Talent

PROM

Jr.-Sr. Prom "Set the Night to Music"

This year the prom was held at Grissom Air Force Base in the Officers' Club. "Set the Night to Music" was the theme for the 1988 Junior-Senior Prom. Everyone enjoyed the music that was provided by The Music Palace.

Peach, teal and silver balloons and streamers cascaded the entrance way into the ballroom. The tables were decorated with white table cloths, balloons with ribbons and a candle. Each person received a memory book and champagne glass which was engraved with "Set the Night to Music" May 6, 1988.

This was the first year that North Miami slected juniors for prince and princess. They were Chris Herrell and Tawnya Wagner. Then came the drum roll and with great anticipation, Robyn Resler and Eric Kraning were crowned Prom King and Queen.

As the evening came to an end, the after prom was yet to begin at the Mexico gym. The theme was "Wipe Out '88." A band from the 50's, 60's era performed music for the couples. Breakfast was served in the morning to conclude Prom '88.

Junior, Ellen Lutz, seats guests as they arrive at the prom.

Set the Night to Music was playing in the background as Robyn Resler and Eric Kranning were crowned '88 Prom King and Queen.

Juniors, Chris Herrell and Tawnya Wagner, were named prince and princess.

Sophomore, Yon Fletcher, fixes refreshments for the prom guests.

Couples dance to music provdied by The Music Palace.

Prom couples await to hear the instructions for the garter ceremony.

Mr. & Mrs. Rentschler and Mr. & Mrs. Schipper converse about what a great job the juniors did on decorations.

Robyn and Eric take time from their exciting evening to exchange conversation with their friends.

Couples are enjoying their favorite rock-n-roll songs.

FIRE UP

A long time ago the student body came to the pep session with the idea that they were there to show their school spirit. As the years progressed, school spirit began to slowly fade away at North Miami. Kids came to pep sessions to get out of class. They made fun of the cheerleaders and those involved in the pep session. School spirit in the 1987-88 school year rose to an all- time high much to the pleasure of the cheerleaders and athletes a like. Mendy Witmeyer, an athlete at N.M., commented, "It's nice to look up into the stands and see an energetic crowd. It somehow makes it worth while to be competitive."

The first pep session of the year was the day of Homecoming. Senior football players introduced the members of the football team. Mr.Linn introduced the volleyball teams and Mr.Felke introduced the cross country runners. Activites at the pep session included a dance to the music of "Control" presented by the cheerleaders. The winner of the Mr. Stud contest was announced junior Jeff Dawalt.

The next pep session was in honor of the girls basketball team as they headed toward sectional competition. Coach Brown and the team helped fire-up the crowd with a rap written for each indvidual on the team. The rap brought enjoyment to everyone. After tthis great entertainment Coach Du-Bois introduced his wrestling team. The final pep session of the year was held before the boys basketball sectionals. The cheerleaders and cheerleading sponsors worked really hard to make this pep session good. And good it was! For an outsider walking into North Miami that day it would seem that N.M. was having a three-ring circus.The pep session was a hit! The student body was involved. There were hola-hoop contests, tug-a-war teams, tricycle races and a banana eating contest for Chris Flaherty. The main attraction at this show was the pie- in- the- face feature with basketball coach Larry Parmeter providing the face. Cheerleaders and all who participated in the pep sessions should be proud of the fact that they brought school spirit back to North Miami.

CONVO-CATIONS

What is a convocation? A convocation is a fancy word for a gathering.

North Miami, along with the other area schools had a convocation presented by Tom McKean. McKean was a former cocaine addict. He told a true story about cocaine and other drugs he used and sold. He also talked about prison life and of reality. The key idea was to have students say,"I'd rather have hugs than drugs." The night of the convocation students were invited to come and listen to Tom once again and to his friend who played music for them.

North Miami students also heard other speakers during the year talk about the dangers of drugs.

Friday
May 20

141 – 225

Wake up bright eyed and bushy tailed. It's our last day of high school!! Rush around smiling, getting ready for school.

Arrive at school in very high spirits. Take your final exams for one class and cram for the next one. Talk and talk and talk to your classmates about old times, ignoring the teachers' constant replay of "shhh". Instead of eating, you socialize with those you are going to miss. Still in seventh heaven, you fly through afternoon exams. It's 3:19.

You hear the final high school bell of your life. Seniors all run out of class screaming. We finally did it! The only thing left is graduation. The goodbyes are sad but the future is to be happy! We'll never forget May 20, 1988!

MARJAN VAN GELDEREN

Exchange Student From Holland

This year North Miami had the opportunity of having Marjan van Gelderen, a foreign exchange student from the Netherlands, attend our school. Marjan stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ward. Her American sister and brother's were Caryn, Brian, and Scott. Her family members in Holland are her mother Greet and brother Maarten. Marjan was active in volleyball and received the Outstanding Defense Award. We asked Marjan how our food is different from hers. "Over here the food is much sweeter than in Holland. And where I live we are used to eat much more toast and apples." We also asked her about dating. "When you are dating in the U.S., you cruise around or go see a movie. In Holland we see each other in disco's or at parties." Marjan said transportation was different because here we drive cars and in Holland they ride bikes.

Marjan enjoys being with her American family during Senior night. Handing out roses for the seniors are Mendy Witmeyer, Tammy Runkle, and Coach Linn. Also looking on are Erin Tiffany and her parents.

Katsumi and Marjan help each other in between classes. "Which way to Government?"

Marjan helps serve drinks during the Senior Class Fish Fry.

Marjan and Lisa Barnhisel take a break from Saturday's Tomahawk Tourney to enjoy some cookies.

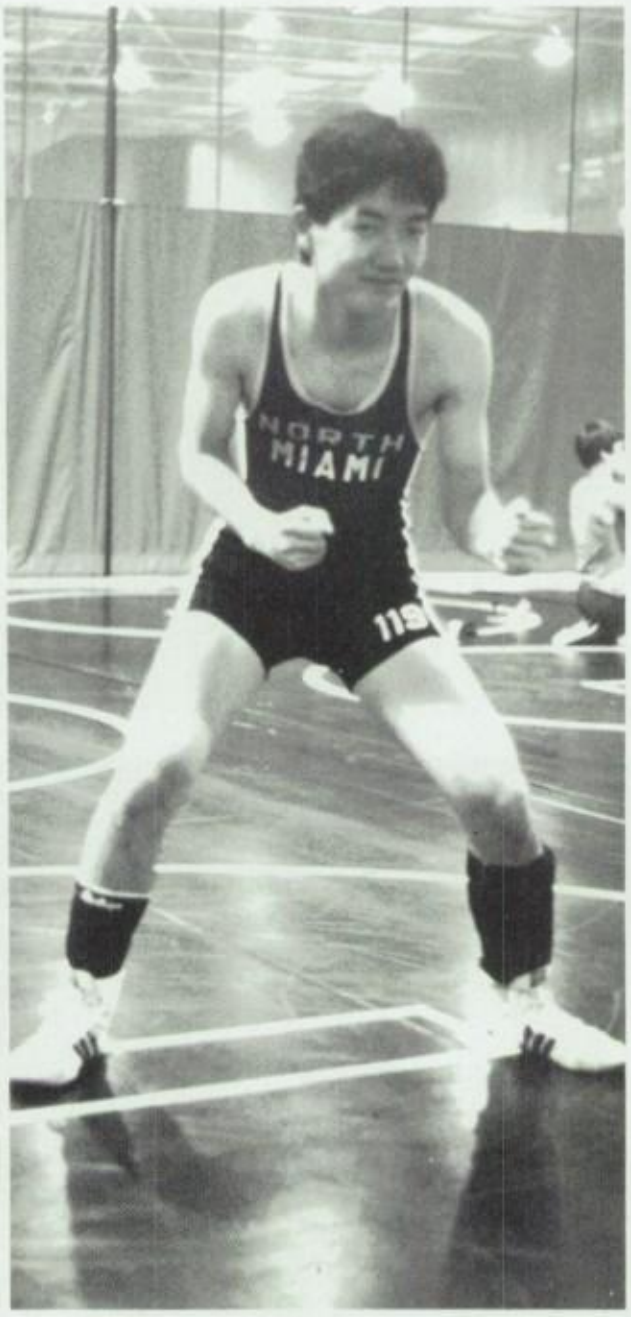
Marjan takes time out to share her volleyball experiences with fellow teammates Ann, Lisa, and Erin.

KATSUMI TAKENO

Exchange Student From Japan

"Oops! Wrong door, Katsumi."

Mr. Spear and Katsumi discuss some art work during class. "Do you understand, Katsumi?"



Katsumi Takeno takes time out of wrestling to pose for our photographer, while he warms up for the on-coming meet. "Nice stance, Katsumi."

North Miami also had another foreign exchange student. His name was Katsumi Takeno and he was from Japan. Katsumi stayed with Mr. & Mrs. Herb Hunt. His American sister and brothers were Hayley, Jay, Robin, and Herbie. His family members in Japan are his mother Kimie, his father Nagatomi, and his two sisters Junko and Yoshie. Katsumi was the football manager and participated in wrestling. Katsumi said the United States was not like what he expected. "My image of America was like movie." Katsumi also said that the transportation was different here in the United States. "I have never seen taxi since I came here. Maybe there is no necessity to use taxi or train, because everybody use their own car."

"Katsumi, we've enjoyed having you visit our country. Best of luck to you!"

Katsumi shows off his Japanese humor as Marjan looks on in amazement. "What are you two planning on doing? Don't you know it's class time ?"

With some thought and concentration, Katsumi works on his art project. "Good job, Katsumi."

'88 MEMORIES

The Seniors Travel To St. Louis

If you look closely, you can see three senior boys posing in front of the Huck Finn Riverboat.

Ken, Bev, Mr. Stephenson, Todd, and Andy stand in the entryway of Grant's Farm.

The sights of St. Louis are spectacular when looking down from the arch.

The Senior Trip to St. Louis, Missouri began at 5:15 A.M., April 21, where we boarded buses at the school to meet the Amtrak in Warsaw. There, we began our long journey to"The Show Me State".

Once in St. Louis, our charter bus arrived and took us to our hotel. After unpacking and freshening up, the mall was next on the agenda. The rest of the evening was spent enjoying various activities in the Holidome.

Day two began with a bright and early visit to Grant's Farm and then a tour of the Anheiser Busch Brewery. A late night at Six Flags was how we ended the second day.

On the third day, bright and early didn't appeal to most, but we peeled open our eyes and drug our feet to the Gateway Arch where we rode 730 feet up to gaze down at the city. Next we cruised the Mississippi River on the Becky Thatcher Riverboat and then off to the zoo. For the baseball lovers, we went to see an exciting Cardinal game in Busch Stadium.

Day four was filled with sleep, relaxation, and wonderful memories of the four day weekend we got the oppertunity to spend together.

There doesn't seem to be enough milk bottles to go around for all those baby goats, does there Missy?

The weary travelers wait for the charter bus after getting off the train.

The Gateway Arch casts its shadow on downtown St. Louis.

Curt and Ty break the monotony of the train ride by clowning around.

SALUTATORIAN, Ryan Hudson

Silver and black robes were worn by the graduates. "Pomp and Circumstance" began, and the graduates assembled slowly in two lines leading into the North Miami gym.

Those attending the graduation listened to The Rev. Lowell Burrous give the Baccalaureate speech. After the diplomas were handed out, then came the moment of anticipation—the turning of the tassels. A candlelight ceremony followed as the '88 graduates formed a circle.

After the hugs and tears in the North Miami cafeteria with robes unzipped and caps off, graduates realized— "It is in dreaming the greatest dreams, seeking the highest goals, that we build the brightest tomorrows."

At left Erin and Ann take one last time to clown around together.

OUR DANCES

Looking back at the school's calendar, there was seldom a free Friday or Saturday night to plan anything extra. The schedule was booked solid with dances, fish fries, programs, etc. The seniors, however, were lucky enough to reserve three of those busy nights for senior dances.

The first dance which followed a basketball game was on January 12; the seniors brought in a total of $314.00. The next dance was on January 25, and they earned $258.00. The last senior dance scheduled was cancelled.

After combining the two dances together, the seniors earned approximately $822.00. That money was used for the senior trip and the graduation ceremony.

Even though the enthusiasm level among some of the seniors was low, that didn't seem to stop the few who went and danced the night away!. Sherry Heeter and Peggy Books were two seniors who really stood out when it came to help and enthusiasm.

All and all the two senior dances were big successes. The seniors thank all who came to help support them and hope everyone had a wonderful time!

Viewing the years of school from kindergarten to the senior year, the class of '88 have some outstanding memories.

Lisa Barnhisel—"Senior year in general and spring break '88." Bev Conner—"Volleyball season and spring break '87 and '88." Katsumi Takeno—"Football, wrestling and track season, and band." Erin Tiffany—"In the 6th grade when Louie and I got in trouble for spitting spit wads and the beginning of the senior volleyball season." Peggy Books—"In school suspension in 7th grade for cussing out Henry Wood." Andrea Gray—"Running the bookstore in 6th grade with Erin Tiffany and Tammy Shaffer." Cindy Wood—"On senior trip when Andrea and I got kicked out of our rooms and met in the lobby with our bottle of Mt. Dew, senior volleyball season and when Karri Murphy and I got in trouble in Mr. Steiner's 6th grade reading class for doing math everyday."

SENIOR TOPS

How did the seniors like their T-shirts or sweatshirts? The seniors who were asked how they felt about the senior shirts said . . .

Lisa Barnhisel—"I think they're neat."

Erin Tiffany—"I think it's neat that most of the seniors have bought them."

Cindy Wood—" I think they're cool; I like them." Andrea Gray—"They would be better if they had everybody's name on them." Katsumi Takeno—"That is gonna be a good souvenir. I like it." Maria Padgett—"I think they are better than last year's." Joey Chumbley—"They are a lot better than just having names in a row." Joey Spin—"Not Bad."

The shirts were made of white cotton. The Class of '88 was written with red ink which is one of the school colors. The signatures of seniors were in black. The school mascot, the Warrior, was placed above the names. A few of the seniors' names were missed.

When they first got their T-shirts or Sweatshirts the thing to do was to find their signatures. "I found my name.""Were is your name?" "Well, let's see."

Seniors, these shirts are forever!!!

OUR NIGHTS

This fall the senior football players along with the seniors in marching band were honored. The senior football players were: Joey Chumbley, Kelvin Correll, Eddie Knappen, Curt Willis and manager Katsumi Takeno. The marching band seniors were: Jennifer Bell, Andy Kopis, Mark Leedy, Renelle Parson, Jennifer Payne and Donn Whitenight.

Bill Wilkens, the only senior on the team, received his recognition in cross country. The volleyball team had the majority of the seniors with nine players being recognized: Lisa Barnhisel, Bev Conner, Ann DuBois, Missy Prior, Tammy Shaffer, Erin Tiffany, Marjan VanGelderen, Caryn Ward, Cindy Wood, manager Peggy Books, and statistician Karri Murphy. The three wrestling seniors were Kelvin Correll, Joey Chumbley and Katsumi Takeno. Basketball recognized seven seniors: Chris Flaherty, Jim Hiers, Brian Oneal, Natalie Radel, Missy Prior, Tammy Shaffer and Caryn Ward. The show band was also recognized. Those seniors were: Jennifer Bell, Andy Kopis, Mark Leedy, Katsumi Takeno and Donn Whitenight. There was only one senior cheerleader to be recognized and that was Tiffany Turner.

The senior choir members also had a long list: Lucinda Ashby, Danna Bonfiglio, Phil Donaldson, Andrea Gray, Tammy Hiles, Andy Keith, Penny Moore, Karri Murphy, Jennifer Payne, Robyn Resler, Jeff Tilden, Marjan VanGelderen and Tim Wellsand.

There were only three seniors on the baseball team and they were Jimmy Cattin, Brandon Smalley and Curt Willis. The senior girls on the track team were Louie Finnegan, Missy Prior, Tammy Shaffer and Marjan VanGelderen. The senior boys on the track team were Richard Gammon, Jason Hefner and Katsumi Takeno.

FISH FRY

The 1987-88 fish fries seemed to be quite rewarding in more than one way. Although the first fish fry, held on December 18 profited more money than the one held on January 29, the second was a lot easier task to perform.

There were expenses to be taken care of before any profits were calculated. These included: Salt—$19.66, Chips—$68, Tickets—$19.50, Fish—$2509.60 and cafeteria expenses.

The overall top four profit makers were as follows: Peggy Books—$91, Ann DuBois—$43, Bob Moore—$42 and Penny Moore—$40.50. The profit earned by the seniors was calculated by: making the desserts brought worth $1.50 each, the presold tickets worth $1.00 and the work done worth $2.00 per shift.

The cost of the tickets was $4.75 for adults and $3.25 for students. The total sales was $4,462.35. Then the actual total profit was $1,400.

The profit and experience from the first fish fry to the second, may have been enough reward, but it wasn't. The SENIOR class got a reward of growing closer to their classmates at this time, too, along with all of the hard work and enjoyment that came with it. A lot of people might have complained about the smell of the fish, but remembering the flour fights, we can laugh about it now. I am sure that if any senior was asked about it, he would have said that it was a lot of fun after all and that he will always remember it.

7:00 The dreaded alarm clock goes off —
7:30 Buzzzz – 6:15 A.M.! No, it can't be
8:00 morning already! Another sleepless
8:30 night before the first day of school.
9:00 I wonder what the classes will be
9:30 like? Who will be in my classes?
10:00 How many will be in class?
10:30 Off to N.M. at 7:30. Need to get 11:00 that cup of coffee before meeting my 11:30 first class. Also need to catch up
12:00 on the news with some of the other
12:30 staff members.
1:00 Mid morning and classes are going
1:30 ok. Of course, we have only 15 min.
2:00 classes, EXCEPT for 4th hour. If I
2:30 can make it thru 4th, I can make it
3:00 during the rest of the day.
3:30 It is now 3:20 P.M., and I am
4:00 exhausted. At least all classes went
4:30 smoothly today. Now, the true test
5:00 tomorrow – regular class periods. Can
I make it? You bet!

Mr. Iran Floyd takes time out from his work at the Superintendent's Office to observe classrooms in the high school. He's watching Chris Main at the computer.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS: ROW 1: Ann Clemons, Joyce Briggs, Shirley Mull. ROW 2: Sherman Kantzer, Keith Stockdale, Superintendent Iran Floyd, Rick Parson, Don Musselman.

Having problems with the new computerized grading card system, Mr. Rentschler?

Miss Hattery always manages a smile, regardless of the money problem that arrives.

Where would a school be without the administration? The good things they did for the school kept North Miami running smoothly all year long. Mr. Floyd had the job of controlling the total operation of the school corporation. He believed that the hardest part of his job was making sure everything was kept in its proper perspective—academics, curriculum, and extra curricular activities.

Did you ever wonder what rule was abused the most in the 87-88 school year? Well, it was the three tardy rule."Students just can't seem to adjust to four minutes between classes," said Mr. Finch.

In the guidance department, Mr. McMillan handled high school students, helping them with their schedules for next year. He believed the hardest part of his job was the tremendous amount of paper work that piled up on his desk! Mr. Oneal kept busy by scheduling classes and advising jr. high students to prepare them for high school. "The hardest part of my job was the lack of time I had to spend with the kids," said Oneal.

Mr. Rentschler said punishing students always led to difficult decision making. "Being a principal is similar to that of a judge, and the decisions I often make could change someone's life," said Rentschler.

The challenges of today's youth brought much satisfaction to these people.

ACADEMICS

Honor Students Receive Recognition

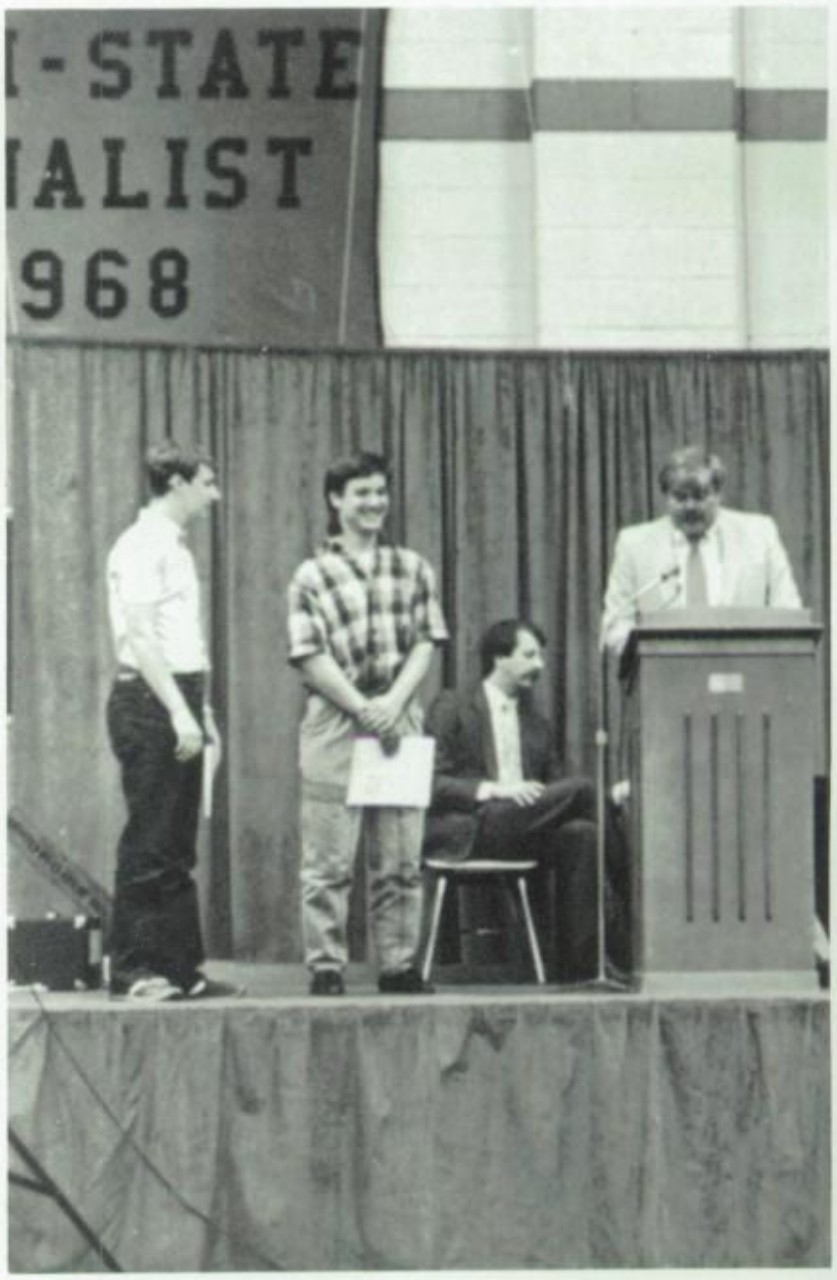
Tiffany Turner, Renelle Parson, Jeff Tilden, Tim Wellsand and Ryan Hudson all received the Presidential Academic Fitness Award.

Jeff Tilden receives his Academic Honors Diploma.



Academic awards were handed out on May 17 to the student body. Tim Wellsand was honored Valedictorian while Ryan Hudson received recognition for being Salutatorian. They also received the Hoosier Scholar Award. Tim received Outstanding Awards in math and science. The Indianapolis Star announced Tim as one of the forty Academic All-Stars in Indiana. Ryan Hudson received Outstanding Awards in agriculture and computers. Jeff Tilden received Academic Honors Diploma as he also received the Outstanding Social Studies Award. The Outstanding Business Award went to Caryn Ward, and Sherry Heeter received the Outstanding Home Economics Award. Two more seniors received Outstanding Awards—Tiffany Turner, English student and Lucinda Ashby, Foreign Language student.

The music department had its own honors program as Jennifer Payne received the Outstanding Music award and Jennifer Bell was recognized as Outstanding Marching Band Member. The John Phillip Sousa Award went to the hands of Jennifer Payne, and Andy Kopis ran away with the Louis Armstrong Award followed closely by Jeff Tilden carrying the Outstanding Choir Member Arion Award.

SOUNDS

SCIENCE

Students Experiment With the Future

In the Jr. High Science Department several activities took place. In one experiment students classified different rocks, and in another experiment the student learned how to plot the planets.

Down the high school hall new science books were being tested. Picture pages, leaf collections, and the aroma of crayfish, frogs, and pigs filled the halls.

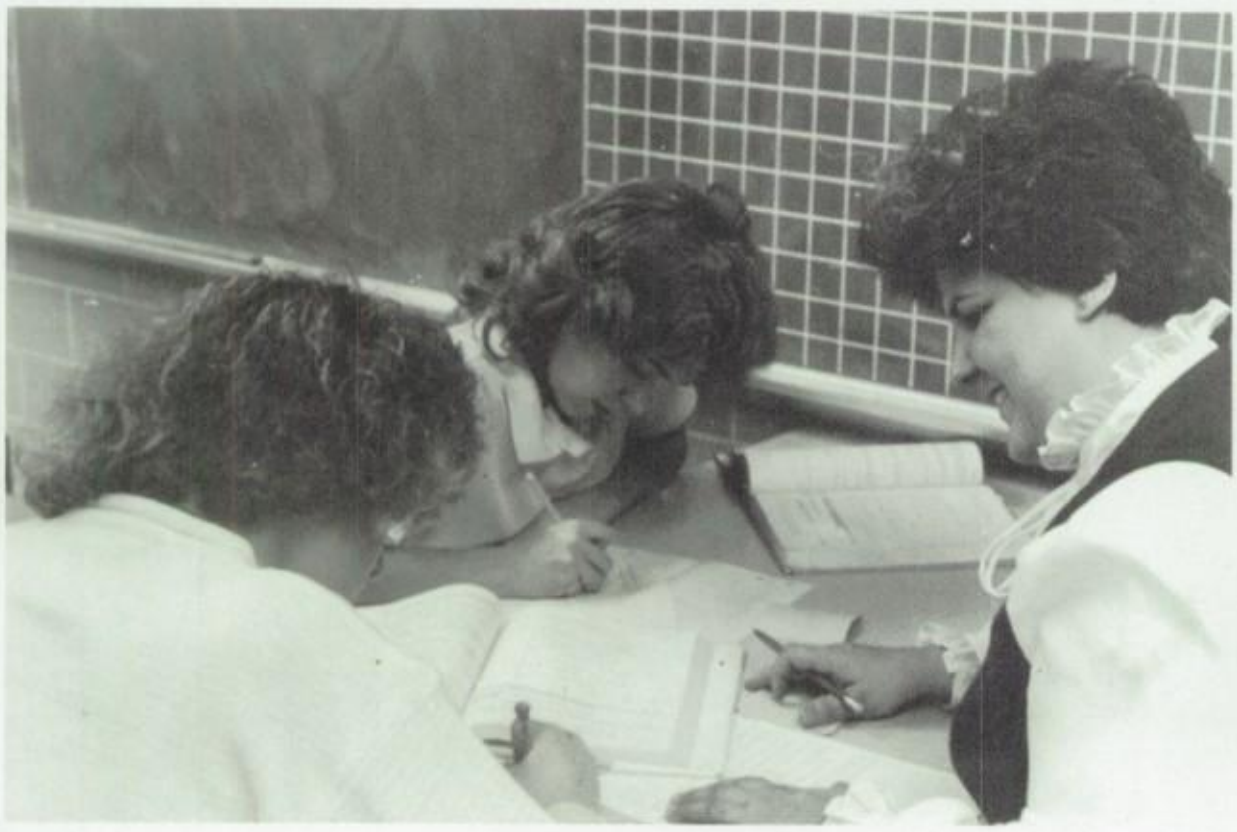
Mr. Collins class seems very intent on listening to new theories of math.



Mrs. Jackson takes time to help some students learn their math skills

The math department took on a different approach this year as folders were given to the students. The folders were used to help the students keep track of papers and it also aided the teachers with checking student progress.

In Geometry class the students found out about past mathematicians by doing a research report. By finding out about great math scholars, the students better understood the different concepts of mathematics.

Miss Bargerhuff has new ideas for teaching students the relevance of geometry.

The English Department this year made a few changes by adding elective courses. The new classes added were: Composition, Regular English 12, Drama and Short Stories. Other elective courses were: Expository Writing, Creative Writing and Speech.

This year a new teacher was added to the English Department. Her name is Miss Marianne Leland. She taught English 8 and Short Stories. Miss Leland graduated from Ball State.

The Foreign Language Department did not make any major changes this year. The Spanish students learned about the cultures by playing games, having spelling tests and celebrating birthdays. The French Students learned about their culture by dancing, cooking, playing games and traveling to Paris. German students learned about their cultures by listening to comprehension tapes to hear the correct German accent. They also had Culture Days when they brought in German food.

Mrs. Jackson discusses the day's events with Mr. Spear.

Few things changed in the vocational and personal-use classes this year. Classes included. Art, Home Ec., Industrial Arts, and Ag. Mechanics.

Mr. Spear, Art Department, said that one of his goals every year was to help kids "love" learning instead of teaching them. Air brush painting was something new that was added along with computer graphics, oil painting, photograpy, and two-diminsional painting classes.

Mrs. Roland had quite a load in teaching her Home Ec. classes. Her foods classes remained the same while fashion design picked up on the latest trends. Child development only had one change—students cared for a newborn, a 5-lb. bag of flour instead of a raw egg.

Industrial Arts, under the leadership of Mr. Felke and Mr. Horban, did something new in construction class. They built and raffled off a storage building.

In Ag. mechanics Mr. Overton, teacher, had the students doing things associated with working with their agricultural skills. They worked with a variety of things—machinery, wood and crops.

Students Put Future Careers Into Action

Champ Hornbaker, Brent Hisey and Craig Conrad take a moment to pose for the camera. Smile, Brent!

Upper Wabash Vocational School offered many career fields for college-bound students. Some of the courses offered were Beauty Culture, Accounting Data Processing, Commercial Foods, Machine Trades, Health Occupations, Office Training and Cosmetology.

Students enjoy vocational school more than high school because they were doing something they enjoyed and planned to make a career out of it. They also enjoyed doing different things and meeting new people. The one thing students enjoyed the least were the long hours spent in the classroom.

Most of the students were in special groups at school. The clubs differ according to the occupation taken. Active groups were VICA, HOSA and OEA.

Phil Donaldson looks extremely proud as he displays some of his work from vocational.

Madman Tommy Shriver looks determined to torch his car during class.

What a year the band members have had. The Crimson Guard's long hours of practice in all kinds of weather really paid off this year. They ended with their best finish ever. Drum Major Renelle Parson felt it takes "practice and discipline" to be a really good band member. Evidently Renelle Parson and Lynlie Harding took that into consideration as drum majors of the award-winning Crimson Guard. The Color Guard became important as they added that extra piazzaz to the marching band.

Union Station was visited by the Show Band this year in early April where the band performed for an Indianapolis crowd. The Show Band also fired up the home crowds during basketball games with their "hot" rockin' tunes.

The Concert Band was considered to have the challenging music. With this band the members had their chance to"dress-up" their music.

Does band sound like a lot of hard work? Well it definetely is, but when band members got the chance to enjoy the great weather of Florida and the Bahamas during spring break they realized that all the hard work was worth it!

Choir and Drama were extremely active during the year. Choir students were busy preparing for the many concerts they perform for people in the community. There were two special events the students looked forward to. This year on January 30, the choir members participated in the ISSMA Solo/Ensemble Contest. Those who received Division I ratings went on to State Contest on February 20.

The activity most looked forward to was the District Choral Festival (DCF). Choir members from eleven area schools got together on March 11 and prepared for a concert that night. It was a great time to meet fellow choir members and show-off choral ability.

Drama club was busy preparing the annual fall play. This year they performed "Backwoods Romeo." Opening night was November 13 with another performance on November 14. The cast practiced several weeks before the opening night memorizing lines.

This year's Student Council was responsible for many exciting activities that went on during the year. Homecoming week was filled with events such as Powder Puff football, Power Puff volleyball, a bonfire and a car smash, dress-up days, dances, and the halftime ceremony. The S.C. also planned the 1987 Christmas Dance where Curt Willis and Erin Tiffany were named Mr. and Mrs. Claus. Another annual event was the Teacher Breakfast where S.C. members were at school by 6:00 A.M. to begin cooking for the teachers.

The Student Council stayed very busy throughout the year and deserve much credit for everything they did.

These clubs take a lot of work and dedication to be successful.

Bible Club needs a lot of dedication. The kids are usually in the club for one reason, and because they know Jesus Christ as their Savior and want to spread the word about Him which is also the general purpose of the club—to be messengers. One way they may have accomplished this task this year was by having Communion on the front lawn.

FCA, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, is a club that takes dedication, not only as Christians, but also as athletes. FCA had a lot of activities this year. They had a retreat in the Fall, movies in November, and Christmas caroling. During baketball season, they had cake raffles, coat checks, and before-game prayers. A summer conference was also planned.

PUSH's dedication and work really showed this year. They organized workshops, plays, and dances. These activities helped show the elementary kids how much fun they could have without the use of any drugs.

These drug dealers emphasize that if the use of drugs by themselves isn't bad enough already, sometimes glass is ground into cocaine to make it look as if there is more of the cocaine than there actually is. How would you like to snort some of this specially made cocaine and live to tell about it?

French Students Travel to France During Spring Break

This year during spring break twelve people traveled to Europe. The French travlers were Mindi Deeds, Angie Grandstaff, Dee Ann Harrington, Tanya Hermann, and Angie Howard. Theresa Gooch, a Peru student, also went. There were five chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stephenson, Mrs. Tami Schultz, Mrs. Francis Jackson, French Club sponsor and French teacher, and her daughter Guen Jackson.

The travelers flew from Chicago and landed in London April 1, 1988. While in London they visited Buckingham Palace and saw the changing of the guard, the Tower of London, and went shopping at Hard Rock Cafe.

The travelers traveled overnight on a ferryboat to Le Harve where they visited Bayeu and the American military cemetary from World War II in Normandy, France.

In Paris the travelrs saw the Eiffel Tower, Palace of Versalles, Napoleon's Tomb and many other famous places. Their last night in Paris they took a farewell tour.

On April 10, 1988, the travelers returned home. Mrs. Jackson said, "They arrived home weary but filled with enough beautiful memories to last a life time."

FFA members were busy again this year participating in local, district, state, and national contests. Sometimes weekends were spent at different contests. Of course, there were several nights devoted to practice for the numerous contests, but the practice paid off to many of the FFA judging teams.

The FFA had two newcomers to the membership this year—a mascot, Miles, and a blue van. The Calloway family donated the van to the FFA so that when they have contests to attend, they can have their own transportation. Elaine also took care of the FFA mascot, Miles. He even has his own "tailor-fitted" FFA OUTFIT. He goes EVERYWHERE with the FFA members and fits right in with the crowd.

Mr. Overton has been a FFA Advisor for 36 years, and during this time, he has enjoyed working with and challenging his students. His highlight was receiving the Honorable American Farmer Degree at the 50th National FFA Convention in 1977.

The picture below represents all of the State Championships in FFA Poultry, Dairy and Soils Judging Contests that our FFA members have participated in.

STRUGGLING

Small Staffs Take On Big Jobs

A man once said, "The best teacher is experience." The members of the 1987-88 Smoke Signals and Arrow staffs found this to be true.

From the rough advertising days to the tedious deadlines, the staffs had a great challenge; they were to produce North Miami's school publications.

Under the leadership and guidance of Mrs. Rita Murphy and Mrs. Roseanna Turner the Smoke Signals and Arrow "laid-out" an outstanding school year in the publications department of North Miami High School.

Both publications used workshops and seminars to help their publication. The yearbook staff attended St. Francis College in September for a Herf Jones seminar. The newspaper staff attended Journalism Day at Ball State University in the spring. Also, yearbook editor, Rita Lippold, attended a two week Journalism Institute at Indiana University during the summer where she planned the 19878-88 yearbook.

Whether printing nine issues of the school newspaper or putting together a 144-page yearbook, it takes good staff members and a lot of hard work.

CHEERLEADERS

Enthusiastic, Award-Winning Cheerleaders Promote School Spirit.

Enthusiasm is a year-round job starting in the hot summer at Indiana Cheer Camp to the cold nights in basketball season. The girls can be seen cheering for their teams and dancing to the beat of the pep band.

Some changes were made through new sponsors who were Mrs. Beth Roland and Mrs.Debbie Alwine. This year was a learning experience for both of them. Mrs.Roland said, "that she enjoyed working with all the girls and seeing them excel and enjoy this year themselves." Mrs. Alwine said, "that the main goals that were met was getting the kids fired up during Homecoming and sectionals."

During the summer the seventh through varsity squads went to Depaw University where Indiana Cheer Camp was held. The varsity and freshmen squads were chosen to compete in their categories. The freshmen squad received the Spirit of Cheerleading Award. Both squads are pictured at the right.

The Yearbook Staff asked the coaches and players how they felt after the 1987 football season. Read on for more!

What was the most rewarding part of the season?

—Coach Bridge replied, "Being around these players and managers and watching them improve."

What was the saddest part of the season?

—"Not winning more games after the players had worked so hard during the off season", said Coach Mikel.

What advice do you have for future players?

—Coach DuBois replied, "Work hard during the off season by being involved in other sports and staying competitive."

What was the most exciting moment in the sport?

—"The start of every game", said Joey Chumbley.

What was the most rewarding part of the season?

—Kelvin Correll said, "Running gassers!"

What was the most depressing time in the sport?

—"The last game ever", said Ed Knappen.

What do you like best about the sport?

—Curt Willis said, "The excitement, competitiveness, and the closeness of a team."

Players listen carefully as Coach Bridge explains how to improve the execution of their plays.

For the second season in a row, the freshman football team stayed very competitive and ended with an impressive 5-1 record. These boys have size, strength, and much intensity in their favor and have shown this by the way they played the game of football. They are looking forward to the many more years of strong football seasons.

SENIORS

"Our Year Has Finally Arrived."

Seniors ROW 1: Curt Willis, Kelvin Correll, Ed Knappen. ROW 2: Andy Kopis, Katsumi Takeno, Joey Chumbley.

This year's varsity football team finished the 1987 season with a record of 3-7 overall. Even though the scoreboards didn't show it, these players improved both physically and mentally on the field and are looking forward to a promising season next fall. There were only five seniors leading the Warriors this year with only one out of the five players getting a considerable amount of playing time. Because of this, a lot of responsibility and pressure to do well was forced on the junior players. Coach Bridge did something different this year because of the small number of seniors, and that was not having two consistent captains throughout the whole season. He alternated juniors and seniors in every game to be captains. All of the junior players had to quickly learn how to take charge on and off the field, and in doing so, became better players.

The Warriors were in a slump when they entered the Sectional, only having won two games up to that point. However, these young men fought back and came out on top in the first round of the sectional games by defeating the Southern Wells Raiders, 42-7. Unfortunately, their luck was short-lived when the North Miami Warriors were defeated by the Wes Del Warriors in the championship game, 21-6. The Warrior players didn't let their inexperience or small size break them down, for their determination and love for the game brought them "TOGETHERNESS".

The pouring rain didn't stop the senior football players and their parents from enjoying the annual Senior Night.

ATTACKERS

Varsity Volleyball Makes History

Enthusiasm, anxiety, and a lot of hard work went into the record breaking volleyball season of 1987, with records of 22-3 for the varsity, and 14-4 for the JV.

Starting the season off by winning the Tomahawk Tourney gave the girls a lot of confidence, because they had reached their first goal. Unfortunately, a few games later they lost a key starter—Leigh Ann Gordon because she moved. The girls rallied to overcome this loss. Then later in the season they also lost an important starter—Mendy Whitmeyer to an injury.

After the loss of two players North Miami was able to adjust with a lot of spirit and team work to win the first TRC Championship in the history of volleyball at North Miami. This record-setting team should be an inspiration for other teams at North Miami.

Even though their hearts were broken when they lost to Maconaquah in the championship game at the sectional, they gave a lot of joy to their loyal fans. They also showed great leadership for the JV girls who had a great season of 14-4. With a winning record like this, it looks like North Miami is going to be enjoying the winning spirit of warrior volleyball victories for some time.

Hey girls, that doesn't look like you're getting very much stretching out done.

This year's yearbook staff gave out questionnaires to the senior players and the coach. Here are some of the results.

—What advice do you have for future players? "Practice often, attend camps during the summer. Don't wait until next year to improve, next year's opportunities may not come around," said Coach Linn.

—Most rewarding moment in the sport? "Having the best record that any team ever had at North Miami. 22-3!," said Ann DuBois.

—Most depressing time in the sport? "Losing in the championship game in the sectional after having dreams of going far as Seniors, since 8th grade. When players fell apart from each other and started playing for themselves," said Erin Tiffany.

—Best thing you like about the sport? "Spiking the ball for a kill and hitting the floor for a dig," said Missy Prior.

—Advantages of being an athlete. "Learn to deal with life, work hard, and budget time. Staying healthy," said Tammy Shaffer.

—Most rewarding moment in the sport? "When we got our TRC trophy," said Marjan van Gelderen.

—Advice to underclassmen. "Always remember to have fun. It is a sport. Winning is not everything, but it is a lot more fun to win. Don't hang in the net and good luck with the mile," said Caryn Ward.

—The last question asked was "What was the most exciting moment in the sport?" All of the senior girls answered "Winning the Tomahawk Tourney and being the TRC Champions."

CROSS COUNTRY

Harriers on the Run

The 1987-88 Cross Country team had a rebuilding season. The team was inexperienced but, with much effort, improved over the season. Considering the inexperience of the team members, Coach Felke was proud of the team's improvement.

Tim Guire was the captain for the boys. He won several trophies from invitationals and came in 2nd in the sectional. This year was the first year for North Miami to have a girls team. Their captain was Elaine Calloway. She ran against the boys in a meet with Whites Institute and finished ahead of one of their runners.

Coach Felke is hoping for a good season next year since only one team member is graduating.

This year's varsity basketball team finished the season with a record of 8 and 13. What the record doesn't show was that the team made an effort as a group not as individuals.

Chris Flaherty was the leading scorer this year. Chris scored a school record of 43 points against Wabash and scored a total of 1,071 career points to be the third member of this school to score more than 1,000 points. Chris made First Team TRC and received Hoosier Basketball All-State Honorable Mention. He also won the Free-Throw Award for an 83.5 percent average. Some advice from Chris to underclassmen basketball players is, "Work hard in the off-season to improve skills; the season is the time to refine them."

Junior, Kris Foster won the Mental Attitude and Most Valuable Player Awards. He too made First Team TRC and made all sectional. Kris shared the Captain Award with Senior, Jim Hiers. Jim had a bit of misfortune when he injured his arm in the Fort Wayne game and spent six weeks out. What Jim liked most about this year was, "Being a part of a team that got along with each other well."

Coach Larry Parmeter commented on the goals he had set for this year's team, "Our desire was to earn respect in the TRC and to be Sectional contender."

The varsity girls basketball team's record was 12-9, which was the most wins for any Lady Warrior basketball team in the history of the school. The JV ended their season with a record of 7-9, including a trophy from the Caston Tourney.

The varsity played in two tourneys this year—the Whitko Tourney and the Holiday Tourney. They received second at Whitko and third at the Holiday Tourney.

The Lady Warriors ended their season with a loss to Maconaquah in the championship game at the sectional. The Lady Warriors deserve a lot of credit for all the hard work and dedication they put in to get as much accomplished as they did.

Individually the Warrior Track Team performed well this year. Tim Guire dominated the track, and Brian Stockdale proved to be a valuable asset to the team. Steve Pugh was the leader in shot put and discus throw. Those who qualified for sectional were: Sean McGuire, high jump; Chris Herrell, long jump; Brian Stockdale, 400m; and Tim Guire, 800, 1600, 3200. Two relay teams placed fourth in the TRC Conference. They were: the 1600m relay team and the 400m relay team. Also, the 1600m relay team placed first in county. The team possessed a positive attitude at the practices and at the meets.

TRACKSTERS

Teams + Individuals = Successful, Winning Teamwork

On your Mark! . . . (deep breath) . . . Get set! . . . (I can do it!) . . . Go! For the experienced runner these words are just that—words. But for the young runner, these few words can give the same effect of a scary movie.

The varsity girls track season was a let down, but it was a learning experience for the Lady Warriors. They ended their season with a 2-7 record and placed third in the county meet.

The Lady Warriors were lucky enough to have three sectional qualifiers: Elaine Calloway in the 3200, Dawn Tigler in the high jump and Rita Lippold in the shot put. On May 17, with the help of some cheering teammates, both Rita Lippold and Dawn Tigler placed second in the sectional and qualified for regional competition.

The Lady Warriors were guided by the four seniors on the team: Marjan VanGelderen, Missy Prior, Louie Finnegan and Tammy Shaffer. Tammy Shaffer's advice to underclassmen was . . . "Relax during your event, encourage each other, ask for help from each other and most of all HAVE FUN!!

It takes alot of concentration and form to be a winner in track. Tawnya Wagner shows she knows how to be a winner!

Sheli Click picks up speed on her way to the long jump pit.

Seniors—Personal Records

"I had the most hits in the 1987 season, and I was also leading in RBI's in 1987."
Senior Brandon Smalley

"I have the 9 most season doubles, season runs scored and the career batting average record. Where we are in the season now, I am 1 away from the triples record and 1 away from the home-run record."
Senior Curt Willis

"Since this was my first year playing, I don't have any records."
Senior Jimmy Cattin

J.V.: ROW 1: Erick Sarver, David Musselman, David Jones, Jeremy Winters, Yon Fletcher. ROW 2: Rod Gross, Shannon Smalley, Ron Shafer, Todd Latta.

In the 1988 baseball season, Warrior fans saw a relatively young team perform, but senior leadership still existed.

"I tried to set a good example for the team. I've had a lot of fun with these guys," stated Curt Willis. Brandon Smalley jokingly said "his presence" has helped the team tremendously.

Although the team was small, each player did the best they could. "The efforts of the players have been satisfying, however, the end results are the toughest to accept," said Coach Mikel.

The Varsity Baseball Team, as of the deadline, had a 3-14 regular season record and a 1-2 conference record. The J.V. also had a troublesome season only winning 1 game. They ended their season with a 1-12 record.

Steve Canada reaches for the ball in an attempt to pick off the runner at second.

David Tiffany races towards home plate to score a run for the Warriors.

David Harrison gives the strike-out ("K") signal to the players and fans.

Up at 6 A.M., but today isn't so bad, because this is the LAST day of school! Good-bye school, hello summer! Off to school and my last time to park here. Next year — front row — senior row. Have to hurry so I can talk to friends before the bell rings. Oh, oh, the locker has to be cleaned out before I leave today.

School is going by quicker today than I had anticipated. My last class — English. After class, while turning in my English book, I realize I have only one more English class left — one more year left of high school!

As I look back on my junior year, it was a good year and my last year as an underclassman. I look forward to my senior year with great anticipation.

School is out! The day I thought never would arrive is now over! Saying good-bye to friends is hard, but there will be next year. On my way out I notice a sign that says, "Class of '89 rules all." Yeah — that's me!

Tricia Shafer expresses her opinion at a junior prom meeting.

N.M. students work hard on the P.S.A.T. test.

Jerry Townsend shows his unbelieveable strength by picking up Eddie Beacraft.

NM CORNERSTONES

The Staff Earns A "10" For Hard Work

Mrs. Cindy Cain
High School
Secretary

Mrs. Emma Hileman
Secretary

Mrs. Cain tries to hide her true identity with an innocent, but mischievious grin.

The offices, the halls, and the kitchen of North Miami were important to the structure of the school, but without a dedicated staff, they meant nothing.

In the main office were Cindy Cain and Emma Hileman who were always busy doing anything from typing transcripts to taking care of early morning refreshments, or xeroxing and filing to being witnesses of paddlings. Donna Hisey had her own officer across the hall where she took care of the bumps, bruises, and headaches of N.M. students.

The cafeteria and kitchen acted as one large office where the cooks prepared delicious lunches for the faculty, the staff, and the students. One of the mouth-watering dishes was Western Pizza. Read on to discover the mystery of what went into making pizza.

THE DOUGH

9 lbs. shortening	24 lbs. flour
4 1/2 lbs. dry milk	9 quarts water
1 1/2 cups baking powder

THE SAUCE

18 lbs. tomato paste	6 lbs. catsup
3/4 cup garlic salt	1/4 cup basil
2 1/2 cups oregano leaves	9 lbs. water

(Recipe continued on page 119)

Our hidden camera catches Mrs. Cain sneaking a snack between phone calls.

Madaline Working begins preparing a delicious dish for lunch.

Linda Fisher fills the new snack machines used for lunches and after school treats.

Phil Engel goes to many heights to keep the school in tip-top condition.

CHEESE AND HAMBURGER
32 lbs. mozzerella cheese
10 lbs. cheddar cheese
36 lbs. hamburger 3 cups of onions
20 lbs. pork pizza topping

Spread everything evenly on 18 26x18 sheet pans. Serves 432 people.

Now that the recipe for Western Pizza has been revealed, students can create their own pizza parties!

The janitors' offices were located all over the school. They worked day and night keeping the school clean. Phil Engel was continuously seen making repairs. "It was hard for me to keep up with all of the electrical repairs because of the lack fo employed electricians, but I enjoyed the variety of jobs I had throughout the year," said Phil. Janitors not pictured were Lonnie Mongosa, Barb Yeargen, Paula Otis, Jim Hofferth and Steve Sopher.

Diane Stockdale and Stephanie Sopher worked in their office behind the stage tutoring students who needed extra help with their studies.

All of these people mentioned were the "CORNERSTONES" of N.M.

"It was founded upon a rock"

YOU'VE MADE IT THIS FAR.....
DON'T STOP NOW

There are endless number of ways to prepare for the future...continuing your education is one of the best. Whether it is college, vocational school or technical school, the Peru Trust Company can help with low cost student loans.

Now you car borrow up to $2,500 per year at an interest rate of 8%. Best of all, you don't begin to make payments until after you finish school...and that is when your education will start paying dividends.

If you want to know more, now is the time to call Becky Gerhart at 473-6661. At Peru Trust we care about you, not just your money. Now isn't that what you really want from your bank?

An equal opportunity lender

We're what you want your bank to be.

FOR NEWS HOT OFF THE PRESS!

When People in Miami County want to know what's happening in the world—or across town—they turn to The Peru Daily Tribune and Ringmaster. Everyone, form the housewife to the tycoon, is affected by the contents of a daily newspaper. Reports on shifts and trends in the world, Classified sections that find you employment, a home, a car, or a buyer for something you want to sell. Money-saving ads covering every aspect of our daily needs. Entertainment in special features, comics and sports pages than enlighten a dull day. And for total market coverage, The Peru Daily Tribune and Ringmaster can't be beat. A publication designed for reading pleasure, the Ringmaster is part of The Tribune once a week. Combined with The Tribune, the Ringmaster has a total circulation of over 18,000. A real bonus for the advertiser.

Victoria Day (Canada)

7:00 It's finally get to sleep in! It's 9:00
7:30 A.M., and I wake up for another day.
8:00 But today is not just any day. I graduate from high school today - the best days of my life. After lying in bed thinking, I realize I better get up and start getting ready. Extra time getting ready is taken today, because everything has to be perfect. This is our day.
I slowly eat breakfast despite the fact that my stomach is doing flips from nervousness.
It's time to pack my cap and gown and drive my last drive to N.M. All seniors meet in the cafeteria and share joys and memories of yesterday. We laugh and cry and "order" each other to keep in touch.
The butterflies start fluttering in my stomach. It's time to march down the aisle and receive our diplomas.
Our high school days are over now and family and friends give hugs and kisses. Graduation parties begin and friends get together for what could be their last time.
